

Developing Health-Centered Communities: The Next Revolution in Real Estate
Leveraging design, technology and real estate to support health and well-being

THEME OF THE DAY	Why healthy towns?	Trends in health care, design, and development	New models and design principles	Implementation of community health and well-being	Presentations
	Monday April 13 (MIT)	Tuesday April 14 (MIT)	Wednesday April 15 (Harvard)	Thursday April 16 (Harvard)	Friday April 17 (Harvard)
Monday only 7:30-8:00 A.M.	Registration and breakfast
Pre-program 8:00-9:00 A.M.	The Changing Definition of Health (8:15-9:00 A.M.) Prof. Dennis Frenchman (MIT) Dr. Stanley Shaw (HMS) Overview and purpose of course	Breakfast	Breakfast	Breakfast	Breakfast & Project presentation set-up
9:00-10:30 A.M.	City Health Planning Prof. Mariana Arcaya The epidemiology of neighborhoods and how design supports/inhibits health	Lifestyles and Health Beth Frates Wendy Garrett Supporting healthy behaviors	Google Sidewalk Labs Prem Ramaswami, Head of Product for Sidewalk Labs	The Value of Design for Health Dr. Andrea Chegut, Director of the MIT Real Estate Innovation Lab Dr. Lynne Katzmann, CEO/Co-Founder of Juniper Communities Juan Palacios, Project Lead, MIT China Future Cities Lab	Team presentations Plenary session-style critiques
Break (15 min)	Break	Break	Break	Break	Break
10:45-12:15 P.M.	The Role of Real Estate in Health Outcomes Prof. Dennis Frenchman American Planning Association Healthy development projects and programs	The Future of Aging Prof. Joe Coughlin, MIT Age Lab	The World's Healthiest Buildings Coen van Oostrom, CEO of Edge Technologies	Public Policy for Healthy Communities J Phillip Thompson, NYC Deputy Mayor and MIT professor	Reviewer's reflections Thoughts and feedback from review panel
12:15-1:00 P.M.	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch (with speaker James O'Connell)	Lunch
1:00-2:30 P.M.	Digital Health Speaker to follow Data sharing	Buildings and Health Prof. Joe Allen Health performance indicators	Start-up Design Showcase Mariana Matus PhD, CEO of Biobot Noelle Marcus, CEO of Nesterly Jim Peraino, Founder of Spatio Metrics	Financing Healthy Development Maggie Super Church, Conservation Law Foundation Healthy Neighborhoods Equity Fund	Lunch and celebration With insights and closing remarks from Prof. Dennis Frenchman and Dr. Stanley Shaw, followed by award of certificates to participants.
Break (15 min)	Break	Break	Break	Break
2:45-4:15 P.M.	Aging and Disease Trends Brent Forester, M.D. Madhuri Reddy The future of aging	Community Disparities Wanda McClain Phillomin Laptiste Factors affecting healthcare	5 Squares Development Andrew Altman, CEO Case study on partnership with Whitman Walker Health, a non-profit community provider. Mixed-used, LGBTQ+ housing and commercial project.	Project work	Program adjourns
Break (15 min)	Break	Break	Break
4:30-6:00P.M.	Introduction to Team Assignment Kimberly Vermeer, Project-Based Learning Facilitator Introduction to Health Impact Assessments and using Healthy Neighborhoods Equity Fund as a case study	Field trip to Roxbury (4:30-5:00) Project: Bartlett Station	Project work	Project work
6:00-8:00 P.M.	Walk to CRE (6:00-6:30) Welcome Reception (6:30-8:00)	Tour and discussion with community leaders (refreshments served) (5:00-6:30)			